President, C.I. Chapter of ASPE

From the President:

Happy Autumn? Even though the snow has fallen, it is still fall, I believe. Wow the year is flying by and it won't be much longer until the end of 2019. Thank you to all that attended our October Meeting. I unfortunately couldn't make it work with my schedule to attend; however, I will be at our upcoming November meeting. As a reminder, we don't have a scheduled meeting in the Month of December so after our November meeting, we will resume in January. You also have two other opportunities to attend chapter meetings this month. The Fort Wayne meeting will be held on November 14th and the Evansville Meeting will be held on December 5th due to the Thanksgiving Holiday.

The 2019 ASPE Technical Symposium has come and gone. I heard that the event was great and the host city of Pittsburgh, PA was a great venue for the event. I don't know if any of you attended the event this year or not, but Central Indiana ASPE Chapter was awarded the Membership Growth Award this year. Our chapter has been on a membership incline since January thanks to our membership drives and our members promoting ASPE to friends and colleagues.

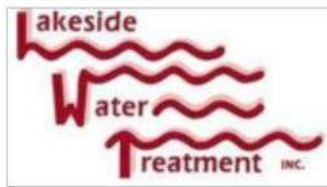

Our monthly meeting sponsors and speakers are filling up for the year at both Indianapolis and Fort Wayne, but don't hesitate to contact us if you have a topic that you feel would be beneficial for the chapter. We can start scheduling for next year.

I hope everyone has a very Happy Thanksgiving. It's one of my favorite times of year with family all getting together. Keep warm and safe.

Until next month,

David Townsend, CPD

Tech News Now:

Greetings,

November brings our ASPE Chapter to the last presentation of 2019. Our last meeting was on Polypropylene Piping Systems and was very well attended. Unfortunately, our original speaker, Matt Deny, from Aquatherm was unable to make it due to flight delays. Randy Vogt from Aspinall Associates stepped up and gave a great presentation in Matt’s absence. We thank Randy for his participation.

This month we have Julia Mauck of NIBCO presenting on “The Press System.” This will be valuable information for the design of your plumbing systems. We look forward to seeing all of you at the meeting.

Please plan to attend as many meetings as possible. It is the support of all of you that drives us. If you have a topic you would like to hear, or think would be of interest to our group, please let me know and I will do my best to set it up at one of our future ASPE luncheons.

Thank you all for your support!

My VP Membership article:

Our Chapter membership has never been stronger! In all my 20 years serving on the chapter board we have never had this strong of a chapter, in membership numbers that is. However, we've been continually growing the chapter this whole time. We might have had a few loses some years, but typically we hold even, or grow our numbers every year. The past couple years though, David Townsend and the Board have incorporated some great programs for building and keeping our membership, and it has paid off recently with our chapter receiving the "Chapter Growth Award" presented at the 2019 Technical Symposium last week.

We held another ASPE Young Professionals (AYP) and Women Of ASPE (WOA) event on October 24th at "Bad Axe Throwing" in downtown Indy. A big thanks to Julia Mauck and NIBCO for sponsoring this event! I think it's safe to say that everyone had a great time, me included! I know, I don't qualify for any of these groups, but I am the Membership VP, so I invited myself. It didn't take long for everyone to get the hang of it and actually be competitive. Our resident Bad Axe coach helped us along and came up with some fun games to play, similar to Dart games. I'm already planning to get a group of friends together to go back. I think these social events, along with our technical programs make our chapter more fun, or worthwhile. I hope everyone feels the same way. We want our members to feel included and enjoy being a member. If you are not a member, please consider joining today. Enough out of me! Stay tuned for future AYP/WOA events! See you at the next meeting!

ASPE AYP & WOA – October 24th, 2019 BAD AXE THROWING EVENT:

Last week, our AYP (ASPE Young Professionals) and WOA (Women of ASPE) groups put on an event for all ASPE AYP and WOA members at Bad Axe Throwing. We were graciously sponsored by NIBCO and our WOA Liason, Julia Mauck for a fun night of beverages, food, and AXE THROWING! We spent 2 hours playing competitive games that were a lot like playing darts with one exception: throwing axes instead of darts. Who would have known we had so many expert axe throwers in our ranks?! Julia and I have teamed up to put on several fun events for our members who are AYP and WOA designation this year and we believe if you have not attended one of these events you really need to experience it. We are building an ASPE AYP & WOA community at these events and getting to know our fellow colleagues in the industry. Please reach out to Julia Mauck (mauckj@nibco.com) or myself John Okerson (jokerson@bsalifestructures.com) if you want to be placed on the invite list for our next event!

Where do we go from here?

For most of 2019, I have written articles on the HITS Conference in Buffalo, NY, the Legionella Conference in Los Angeles, CA, and of course the ASPE Technical Symposium in Pittsburgh, PA. These events all share a common theme, Waterborne Pathogens.

Note I did not write that the theme was “Legionella”. Don’t get me wrong, Legionella is a real threat. It can make people sick with a mild form of pneumonia called Pontiac Fever, or worse, kill you or a loved one if Legionnaires’ disease is contracted and not properly diagnosed, and treated in time.

Legionella is the bacteria that most of the manufacturers, engineers, and consultants involved in plumbing are concentrating on. I don’t blame them, but as professionals delivering safe, clean, potable water systems to humans, we cannot afford to make this mistake. We must do a better job. Take the “Legionella” blinders off and take a full 360-degree HAI (Healthcare Acquired Infection) look around you.

In early October of this year, three infants died from a pseudomonas outbreak in the NICU at the Geisinger Medical Center in Danville, PA. Eight other premature babies staying in the same NICU survived. There is no greater fear for a parent than to lose a child, especially an infant.

Pseudomonas bacteria is a common germ in healthcare environments. It is also extremely adaptive. Another name is Antimicrobial Resistance (AMR). Be sure to add this acronym to your vocabulary.

Carbapenem-resistant gram-negative bacteria, namely, carbapenem-resistant Enterobacteriaceae (CRE), Acinetobacter baumannii (CRAB) and Pseudomonas aeruginosa (CRPsA), are an emerging cause of healthcare acquired infection that pose a significant threat to public health. The WHO published guidelines on this subject in 2017. You can download a free copy by clicking here. Or, visit <https://www.who.int/infection-prevention/publications/guidelines-cre/en/>

Those that know me, know I am not an engineer, nor an infection preventionist. I don’t pretend to be one, but I can tell you the science of plumbing engineering, design, codes, installation, and maintenance of building water systems is heading in a new direction. What you know today will be the “old school” ways of doing things in the very near future. This should be exciting news for all the AYPs.

ASPE is addressing some of these issues with two groups. The Long-Range Planning Committee (LRPC) and the newly formed Legionella Working Group (LWG). The LWG is looking to develop a premise plumbing specific design guide for commercial buildings. There will be a healthcare related sub-group looking to do the same. As everyone knows, healthcare systems are some of the most complex plumbing systems known and require special attention. I am happy to report, our Region 2 Director, Keith Bush, CPD, CSI, GPD will chair the LRPC and will sit on the LWG too.

In addition to the design guide(s), the LWG will review conflicts in the plumbing codes, LEED and/or WELL buildings, water velocities, stagnation, water quality, filtration, ultra-filtration, disinfection and much, much more.

Buckle yourself in. The road to safer, cleaner, healthier, potable water systems just might get a little bumpy along the way. Be sure to continue to do your research, learn, seek advice, and enjoy the ride as we transition into a new Water Safety Culture.
