Hello everyone,

Thanks to Chris Nancrede from LEGCS teaching about 'legionella control' for our May lunch n learn. We now have our summer break from lunch n learns. We will continue them in September.

We have our Habitat for Humanity volunteer event this month that we reschedule from May to June 26th. As I write this article, we still need some more volunteers to fill all of our spots for this event. More info on how to register can be found later in this newsletter. This is also our charitable donation as we will be donating $1,000 to Habitat for Humanity. Our next event will be our golf outing. More info can be found later in this newsletter.

ASPE news this month:

- The 2025 Tech Symposium will be held in Orlando, FL on Sept 24-28. A discounted entry fee is available if you register before 6/30 if you plan to attend. More info can be found at aspe.org/2025-aspe-tec-symposium.
- The next medgas workshop will be held on June 9-12 online or in person in Broomfield, CO. See education.aspe.org for more info. Be sure to check in at education.aspe.org for all upcoming workshops and on demand webinars.

What is ASPE?

The AMERICAN SOCIETY OF PLUMBING ENGINEERS (ASPE) is the only organization dedicated to promoting the plumbing engineering profession to both enhance career opportunities for our members and ensure the health, safety, and well-being of the public through the design of safe plumbing, drinking water, and sanitation systems.

WHAT WE DO

Provide continuing professional education programs

Publish design manuals, tools, and standards

Host conferences, tradeshows, and networking events

Certify professionals skilled in plumbing system design

Promote safe and sustainable water and sanitation systems

Represent the industry in local and national government

Help develop safe plumbing and building codes and standards

OUR MEMBERS

Our members are individuals working in various professions related to plumbing system design.

← What Is Plumbing Engineering?

Plumbing engineering is a vital part of the design/build construction process. Plumbing engineers use the principles of fluid flow with engineering calculations to design plumbing systems that transport fluids such as water, wastewater, natural gas, and rainwater throughout buildings.

Mentoring Program

This program, which is available to all members of the Society, has been designed to connect ASPE members who have a particular skill set (mentor) with individuals (mentee) who are searching to acquire the same skills to develop and make progress toward their personal and professional goals.

Who Is a Mentor?

A mentor is someone who can help the mentee develop skills for success and long-range career planning, is able to be a good listener, is willing to share experiences and views, is willing to commit time and effort, provides an “open door” to questions and problems, points out both strengths and opportunities for improvement, and has a vested interest in the growth and development of their mentee.

Benefits to the mentor:

- Satisfaction in helping someone mature, progress, and achieve goals
- Meeting and sharing experiences with other mentors
- Personal ongoing support to help the mentee succeed
- Personal fulfillment through contribution to the Society and the individual

Who Is a Mentee?

Having a mentor can contribute to a successful and satisfying career. Without a mentor, that learning occurs mostly through trial and error. With a mentor, even experienced professionals can benefit from the experiences and expertise of someone who has withstood the trial and can help the mentee avoid the mistakes. Similarly, those new to the industry will discover that being a mentee shortens the learning curve for acquiring the skills and knowledge most critical to a fruitful career.

Benefits to the mentee:

- Discover new talents about yourself
- Career satisfaction
- Expand your personal network
- Maximize your strengths
